Exmouth, Devon's oldest seaside resort and largest town in East Devon, is easily reached by car, bus, coach, rail and even boat.

This lively British town lies at the mouth of the renowned Exe Estuary, which is abundant with bird life, brightly coloured sailing craft and splendid panoramic views. The level promenade stretches along Exmouth's golden sandy beach for over 2 miles. This leads to the start of the internationally important coastline designated as a World Heritage Site.

There are beautiful floral displays throughout Exmouth's well-equipped centre, making it the ideal place to relax and shop. Exmouth also offers a variety of seaside attractions and world-renowned watersports facilities, all close to the main shopping areas and lively town centre. When it comes to eating out you are spoilt for choice as Exmouth has a range of vibrant restaurants, pubs and cafes. Plymouth University's Rolle College is also situated in Exmouth. By day and certainly by night there is always something going on, and the town's diverse and vibrant student community make Exmouth an ideal destination for experiencing student life. Exmouth is also a convenient base for exploring other places of interest in the South West, such as the beautiful Roman City of Exmouth and the Naval City of Plymouth, famous for the National Marine Aquarium and as the departure site of the Pilgrim Fathers.
